

number LS675, and another older-model, flip cell phone.

4. Police officers arrested me in the Wing Stop parking lot. I was handcuffed and searched. Neither cell phone was on my person.

5. While I was ^{standing near} sitting in the back of a police car, my parole agent asked me if I had a cell phone and I told him, Yes I have a flip phone inside

6. My parole agent then went inside Wing Stop. When he came out again he had what appeared to be two cell phones in one of his hands. ^{at first} I could not see well enough from the police car to say for certain whether the two cell phones were my cell phones.

7. My parole agent ~~never~~ ^{the LG Phone} asked me if ~~either of the two phones~~ belonged to me. He never asked for permission to seize them or search them. I never gave consent to him or anyone else to seize my cell phones or to search their contents. I said the LG Phone belonged to me.

8. I have been incarcerated since November 14, 2016. As an inmate, I am not allowed to possess cell phones.

9. I did not learn what happened to my cell phones until I received the discovery in this case.

Dated at Madison, Wisconsin this September 25, 2018.
